Re: Addendum to Personnel Policy Section 6.2.4: Holidays

Effective Date: May 17, 2022

Objective

Juneteenth honors the end to slavery in the United States and is considered the longest-running African American holiday. On June 17, 2021, it officially became a federal holiday. In accordance with the federal government, we will be including Juneteenth (June 19th) in our paid holidays.
