Background Information	Winooski has a state Downtown Designation, which provides Winooski access to resources and services for this economic driver. The Designation requires a designated downtown organization; Downtown Winooski has been that organization since the City helped get it started and formalized in 2007. You saw an earlier draft of this and had the opportunity to provide input, reflected in the following version. Red text indicates changes from the FY22 executed MOU. The Downtown Winooski Executive Director has reviewed, and will be in attendance to answer any questions.
